Hello AMS Friends and Families,

Thank you for taking the time to submit your reflections on gratitude over the last few days- they were absolutely beautiful. We shared them with our AMS faculty and staff today and have linked them here for you as well: AMS Thoughts of Gratitude- Student and Family Edition

We also wanted to be sure to inform our families that we had our first lockdown drill of the year today. The drill was announced ahead of time to faculty, staff and students, and we maintained social distance in our classrooms by having students remain in their seats, discussing the lockdown protocol with their teachers. The drill went really well and we appreciate your students' partnership in keeping our school community safe.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Stay well,

Dave Kimball
