Dear Parents and Students:

By now we are all becoming acclimated to this new adventure into remote learning! The UA teachers have been working to design lessons and/or projects that will be doable at home with minimal “extra” equipment/supplies.

If your student has not yet joined their UA Google Classrooms, please remind them to do so. The codes for each of the UA teachers are on the following page. Students only need to join the google classrooms for the section of the course they’re enrolled in. Students are expected to follow each teacher’s directions for attendance, class requirements, and for submission of completed assignments.

Know that we are ready and available to help students and parents navigate this new learning. We will continue to work together to provide the best teaching and learning environment available to us given the constraints of an online platform.

Please reach out to us through our AMS gmail and/or through our Google Classrooms.

We hope you and your families remain healthy and safe as well as enjoy some unexpected down time together.
