From the Principal:

Another "spooky" week is drawing to a close today. Mrs. Borio and I had a little fun Thursday as mad and sad baby (See picture below.) The highlight of the day was our Kindergarten students and the parade. After, making their way through the halls of PGS, our costumed Kindergarteners made their way over to Avon High School to meet with students and hear from the principal.

What a fun way to help students make connections and get a glimpse of their future at AHS. My favorite quote from one of our own K students, "Big kids are really big!"

Enjoy the weekend! (Mrs. Borio) (Mr. G)
