From the Principals: Short weeks and snow have been the theme the past two weeks here at Pine Grove School. That said, we continue to work hard and pack as much learning as we can into the time we have. Speaking of snow, NBC's "Snow Monster" and Kaitlyn McGrath visited Mrs. Dybinski's third grade class today for a special weather presentation. (Pictures below). Nothing beats an opportunity to bring real world experiences into the classroom and connect them to our curriculum. You may have even caught a "shout out" on NBC on the 11:00 AM news. Thank you to everyone who made this experience possible.
