Attendance Clarification - If you downloaded the PowerSchool Attendance APP to receive attendance notifications on your phone, you will receive a notification each time your child's attendance has been entered or revised. You may shut this notification off if you do not want to receive notification. Please give the attendance clerk until 10:00 AM to make adjustments to the attendance if you child arrives late.

If your child is going to be out, please call the absence line and leave the child's name, teacher's name and brief explanation of the absence by 8:45AM.

If you do not call the attendance line for an absence, you will receive an automatic call reporting your child's unexcused absence.
