From the Principals:

Next week, as a way to help us all feel more connected while apart, we are going to begin weekly Spirit Days. We think it better to not identify a specific day of the week, but rather to ask students to participate on days when their class has a virtual meeting. This way they can show off their spirit to their classmates and their teacher. So, if your child meets with their class on Tuesdays and Thursdays, they can choose which day to sport their swag. Feel free to snap a photograph of your child participating and email it to Mrs. Anderson at danderson@avon.k12.ct.us so she can post them on our website. Beginning next Friday, Mr. G and Mrs. Borio will be part of morning announcements to share some photos of kids showing their PGS spirit and announce the next week's Spirit Days. Be sure to check Friday's announcement and/or Trending Now to find out how, together we will be showing our spirit from week to week. Remember, although we are apart we are strong together!

Next Week's Spirit Days will be ...drum roll please....

HAT DAY!

Wear a hat to your class meetings any day next week week to show your PGS Pride!
