From the Principal: Today, Pine Grove held our final town meeting of the school year. Town meetings (school assemblies) are our way of coming together as a school community to celebrate, acknowledge, and discuss important school events. If you did not get to attend, here are the highlights from today: The Pledge of Allegiance was led by our sign language club. Congratulations to the winner of our yearbook cover artwork contest, Shaivi Komireddy! Her yearbook cover was selected from several amazing entries. Summer Reading: The Summer Reading Dance Party will be back this September. Make sure to read, read, read this summer and return your reading log to Mr. G in August. Ryan Curran performed beautifully on his cello. Our second graders performed songs from their Underground Railroad Informance. We were serenaded by the third graders on their recorders. Mrs. Bray's 4th grade class performed the Los Machetes dance, and we all sang Hakuna Matata as a send off to those students and staff who will not be returning to PGS in the fall. Busy Friday! -Mr. G
